

Department of Health & Human Services

Position description

Child Protection Practice Leader

In the context of a whole of community approach, Child Protection Practitioners have a specific statutory role in protecting children and young people from harm and promoting their rights and healthy development.

Are you:

- Committed to working with children, young people and families?
- Able to effectively engage to provide families with the optimum capacity for change?
- Continually improving your skills and knowledge to further develop your professional practice?

This role may at times be required to operate outside normal office hours (at night and on weekends and public holidays) with relevant overtime or time in lieu provisions applying. Rural employees may be required to participate in an on call roster.

Title	Child Protection Practice Leader
Classification	CPP 5.2
Team, unit	Children, Youth and Families
Branch/area/region Division	Child Protection
Work location	Various (metropolitan and rural locations across Victoria)
Position number	DHHS/CPP5/PL
Employment type	Ongoing and Fixed Term. Full-time and Part-time.
Salary range	Value range 2: $95,572 - $104,650 plus superannuation
Position reports to	Area Manager
Further information	Email childprotectionjobs@dhhs.vic.gov.au

Organisational environment

The department develops and delivers policies, programs and services that support and enhance the wellbeing of all Victorians. We take a broad view of the causes of ill health, the drivers of good health, the social and economic context in which people live, and of the incidence and experience of vulnerability.

Purpose and accountability

Purpose

The Child Protection Practice Leader is responsible for providing expert case practice advice and leadership; supporting and developing Child Protection Practitioners in the integration of theory and practice while demonstrating expertise through case management. The Child Protection Practice Leader supervises the Senior Child Protection Practitioner (Community-based), undertakes case practice quality audits and provides regular practice forums and community education.

Accountabilities

Operating at value range 2, you will:

1. Provide effective leadership and support to child protection practitioners by:
 - (a) modelling behaviours integral to departmental values
 - (b) modelling behaviours integral to effective people management
 - (c) providing guidance and expertise in relation to highly sensitive cases and challenging issues
 - (d) providing mentoring, live supervision and group training opportunities
 - (e) providing supervision and performance management for the Advanced Practitioner (Community Based)
 - (f) integrating theory into practice and implementing reflective practice for continuous improvement in practice
 - (g) providing employees with relevant information and access to safe systems of work.
2. Provide authoritative advice and professional opinions to child protection practitioners and professionals in other disciplines; lead or participate in case conferences including family decision making with other professionals.
3. Provide a highly specialised professional service, including managing highly sensitive cases, incorporating cross-agency collaboration and making decisions on intervention strategies and client service delivery.
4. Identify issues and trends, assess the potential application of developments in the field and develop, propose and apply solutions, new ideas and methods in more complex case plans with a view to promoting continuous improvement in professional practice and the achievement of Child Protection objectives.
5. Identify and apply appropriate research in forming interventions and develop innovative solutions to complex and difficult cases, drawing on a range of professional networks to identify gaps in case assessments.
6. Develop and maintain strategic and collaborative relationships between child protection and the community sector.
7. Establish and maintain a practice consultative panel for Child FIRST/Integrated Family Services and other key stakeholders and conduct regular practice forums.
8. Conduct quality audits of case practice using CRIS and contribute to program improvements.
9. Provide quality, timely and effective case practice and case management services within an established child protection service delivery framework.

10. Prepare documentation, present information and make recommendations to the Children's Court of Victoria and other relevant courts and tribunal processes on decisions and actions in the best interests of the child.
11. Exercise a wide range of authorities and legal delegations pursuant to the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 and other specific delegations and functions including adherence to relevant Department of Health & Human Services practice standards.
12. Maintain approvals and delegations within the Client Relationship Information System (CRIS) and ensure compliance for all recording, analysis and review of client information by yourself and practitioners reporting to you
13. Use a range of IT/web-based applications to manage workflow and approvals, and monitor quality assurance, program outcomes and budgets in accordance with departmental guidelines and privacy principles.
14. Be clear about accountability and responsibility for decisions and involve partners in joint problem solving, whilst monitoring the impact this approach has on the desired outcome.
15. Represent the department's view at industry forums and inter-agency committees, taskforces and government and non-government bodies' responsible/concerned with achieving Government objectives in this sector.
16. Participate actively in supervision and professional development opportunities.
17. Keep accurate and complete records of your work activities in accordance with legislative requirements and the department's records, information security and privacy policies and requirements.
18. Take reasonable care for your own health and safety and for that of others in the workplace by working in accordance with legislative requirements and the department's occupational health and safety (OHS) policies and procedures.
19. Demonstrate how the actions and outcomes of this role and work unit impact clients and the department's ability to deliver, or facilitate the delivery of, effective support and services.

Selection criteria

Knowledge and skills

1. People Management: Clearly defines role expectations, monitors performance, provides timely and constructive feedback and facilitates development of team at a superior level.
2. Expert knowledge of the Department of Human Services and child protection program goals, values, principles, standards and role within the broader child protection system.
3. Expert knowledge and ability to embed in practice, the core responsibilities and principles underpinning the Children Youth and Families Act 2005 and the Child Wellbeing Act 2005.
4. Expert knowledge of the legislative, policy and practice requirements relating to Aboriginal children, families and community and ability to apply to case practice and decision-making.
5. Superior understanding and skill in applying the best interests case practice model in undertaking assessments, decision-making, planning and interventions to respond to a child or young persons safety and development.
6. Superior understanding of child development, attachment and trauma theories as they relate to child protection practice.
7. Experience in leading critical reflection, applying theoretical frameworks and referring to research and literature to inform case practice and decision-making at a superior level.
8. Experience in initiating, preparing and presenting a case in Children's Court or other tribunals at a superior level.

9. Experience in delivering results that focuses on the best interests of the child and achieves positive, long lasting outcomes for children and families at a superior level.
10. Experience in leading and inspiring others by applying adult learning principles during mentoring, coaching and supervision to enable the transference of evidence from research and critical reflection.
11. Presentation Skills: Prepares and delivers logical, sequential and succinct presentations; quickly makes a positive impression on others and comes across with presence and credibility; and deals with difficult and sensitive topics and questions.
12. Self-management: invites feedback on own behaviour and impact; uses new knowledge or information about self to build a broader understanding of own behaviour and the impact it has on others; understands strong emotional reactions and seeks ways to more effectively manage them.

Personal qualities

13. Managing Oneself: Manages and cares for self to maintain resilience and support when working within a challenging operating environment.
14. Integrity: Committed to the public interest. Operates in a manner that is consistent with the organisations code of conduct. Inspires trust by treating all individuals fairly.
15. Relationship Building: Establishes and maintains relationships with people at all levels. Promotes harmony and consensus through diplomatic handling of disagreements. Forges useful partnerships with people across business areas, functions and organisations. Builds trust through consistent actions, values and communication. Minimises surprises.
16. Teamwork: Cooperates and works well with others in the pursuit of team goals. Collaborates and shares information. Shows consideration, concern and respect for others' feelings and ideas. Accommodates and works well with the different working styles of others. Encourages resolution of conflict within group.

Safety screening

- All competitive applicants are subject to a satisfactory National Police History Check as part of the recruitment assessment process.
- Applicants who have lived overseas for 12 months or longer during the past 10 years are required to provide the results of an international police check. Applicants should contact the relevant overseas police force to obtain this and submit as part of their application. Details of overseas police agencies are available on the Department of Immigration and Border Protection website (www.immi.gov.au) and search under 'Character and Police Certificate Requirements – How do I obtain a police certificate?'
- Safety screening will include checking whether your name is on the Disability Worker Exclusion List (DWEL) maintained by the Disability Worker Exclusion Scheme Unit (DWESU). The DWEL includes names of persons unsuitable for employment as a disability support worker in a disability residential service provided, funded or registered by the Department of Health & Human Services.

Qualifications

Mandatory

- A recognised Social Work degree or a similar welfare or behavioural related degree which includes:
 - (a) a primary focus on child development, human behaviour, family dynamics and/or impacts of trauma; and preferably
 - (b) a practical component such as counselling or case work practice or

- A recognised Diploma of Community Services Work, or similar qualification which is studied over a minimum of two academic years of full-time study (or part time equivalent) and includes:
 - (a) a primary focus on child development, human behaviour, family dynamics and/or impacts of trauma

- (b) supervised fieldwork placements (ideally completed within the child and family welfare sector) and at least one unit of study in case management, case work practice or counselling and

- A valid driver's licence.
- A current Employee Working with Children Check (WWCC) card is required and will need to be provided prior to commencement of employment by the applicant. Currency will need to be maintained by the employee for the period of employment.

Desirable

- Post graduate qualification in child adolescent and family practice, family therapy or working towards completion of such a qualification
- Extensive relevant experience.

Conditions and benefits

People who work for the department must comply with the Code of Conduct for Victorian Public Sector Employees 2007 and agree to work according to our values of quality, collaborative relationships, responsibility, client focus, professional integrity and respect.

Employees of the Department of Health & Human Services can enjoy a range of generous Victorian Government employment benefits. These include attractive salaries, flexible leave arrangements and training and development opportunities. Please see www.careers.vic.gov.au/why/benefits-conditions

The department promotes diversity and equal opportunity in employment. If you are an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander applicant, or if you have a disability, and require advice and support with the recruitment process, please contact our Diversity Unit on DiversityInclusion@dhhs.vic.gov.au.

How and where to apply

The Department of Health & Human Services prefers job applications submitted electronically to best manage administrative and environmental resources. If you are unable to apply online, please follow the instructions below to submit a paper copy.

- Online – existing staff: click through to the job opportunities page from the department's intranet homepage.
- Online – external applicants: visit the job search page at www.dhs.vic.gov.au/about-the-department/our-organisation/careers/job-search
- Paper copy – all applicants: complete a Hard Copy Application for Employment form available via the links above or the contact for further information noted on page 1 of this document. Paper applications should quote the job reference number on the outside of the envelope and be posted to: Recruitment Officer, Department of Health & Human Services, Level 4, 50 Lonsdale Street Melbourne Vic 3000.
- If you are unable to apply online or having difficulties accessing the information online, please email childprotectionjobs@dhhs.vic.gov.au, for assistance.

Other relevant information

For other important information about the recruitment process, please read the department's Information for applicants page at www.dhs.vic.gov.au/about-the-department/our-organisation/careers/applying-for-a-job/information-for-applicants or request a copy from the contact for further information listed under the 'Position details' section of this document.